P.C.

It is contented that even though the administrator is appointed and the members were removed, they continue to function as members of the Managing Committee. It will be open to the petitioner to move the Registrar. Considering the fact that the administrator is appointed, the Registrar is directed to call for the report from the Administrator after the petitioner herein files his representation. The representation to be filed by the petitioner within 15 days from today. All questions that are raised before this Court, can be agitated before the Registrar.

With the above order the petition is disposed of.

Parties concerned to act on a duly authenticated copy of this order.
